I am hosting an E-Party with Mary Kay for my Beauty Consultant, _____. I would love to later do a fun girlfriend party in person, but this is a way to let you know what I already know...how great Mary Kay products are! My Consultant's personal website address is: www.marykay.com/_____. Her site has the full Mary Kay catalog, lots of great gift ideas for every holiday, product education and great links about health and beauty.

An E-Party is where you visit her website within a certain time frame. And I earn FREE Product for any orders that are placed from you during that time, just as if we had the party in person!

What's in it for you? When your order totals $40 or more, you get an awesome gift with purchase. For each $40 or your order, your name goes into a drawing for Mary Kay _____ (a must-have). You have the opportunity to schedule your own personal pamper time with _____ and the opportunity to get FREE products!

I know that you will enjoy your online Mary Kay shopping experience. Simply go to the site at the above address, enjoy shopping in your pj's, and choose either in person payment or online. In the comments section, be sure to say that you are part of my E-Party so I will get credit.
